

DIPLOMA OF ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH

Duration: 1 year full-time or part-time equivalent

Availability & Campus:

	JO	ML	BU	OL
Full-time	○			○
Part-time	○			○

Note: Mid-year intake is only available on a part-time basis.

Prepares students to make a positive contribution to the health of communities.

Students graduate with the ability to think critically about prevention and control of communicable and environmental disease and a range of other environmental health issues, to work independently and as part of a team, and plan and coordinate environmental health projects.

Employment Opportunities

Graduates will be employable in State Government, Shire and City health departments in a support role to Environmental Health Officers.

Careers

Environmental Health Assistant, Environmental Health Cadet, Environmental Health Technical Officer

Course Structure

Year 1 Semester 1

HST1111	Population Health
HST2114	Environmental Health Law and Compliance
SCI1193	Introduction to Environmental Science
HST1152	Introduction to Occupational Health and Safety

Year 1 Semester 2

HST2116	Environmental Health Professional Practice
HST1109	Epidemiology
HST2184	Communicable Disease Control
HST2220	Health Promotion Planning and Administration

Practicum

Students will undertake the unit HST2116 Environmental Health Professional Practice which comprises of a 140 hour placement in an environmental health department. There are attendance requirements and professional practice rules for this practicum, and clearance and/or risk management protocols may be required. For more information, see course details on our website.

See more course information ———
ecu.edu.au/courses/C54

PHONE: 134 328 | (61 8) 6304 0000 (International)

EMAIL: futurestudy@ecu.edu.au

ECUWORLDREADY.COM.AU ———