12th National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Environmental Health Conference

16-19 September 2019, Perth, WA

Living healthy: One goal, different paths

On behalf of enHealth

On behalf of the enHealth Expert Reference Panel on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Environmental Health, Western Australia Government and Environmental Health Australia, I warmly welcome your attendance at the 12th National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Environmental Health Conference on 16-19 September 2019 at the Pan Pacific Hotel, Perth, Western Australia.

The aim of this national conference is to:
• increase the understanding and awareness of environmental health issues in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities;
• provide a forum to showcase achievements and discuss emerging issues in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Environmental Health;
• provide a national voice for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Environmental Health.

The conference provides Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander environmental health practitioners a unique opportunity to meet in one place, to network and share information and learn of new initiatives. The conference theme Living healthy: one goal, different paths will be addressed through a number of presentations delivered predominantly by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander environmental health practitioners.

Jeff Standen
Chair, Expert Reference Panel on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Environmental Health

On behalf of Environmental Health Australia

Environmental Health Australia (EHA) is delighted to welcome all delegates to the 12th National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Environmental Health Conference in Perth, Western Australia.

EHA is the premier organisation in Australia advocating for environmental health and representing the professional interests of all environmental health practitioners. EHA believes access to training, mentorship, coaching and association with other environmental health practitioners will benefit all EHWs. Our network of State Associations can offer all Environmental Health Workers (EHWs) personal or corporate memberships that enable access to a network of professionals, training and conference opportunities, environmental health products and advocacy, across Australia.

The Conference theme “Living Healthy: One Goal, Different Paths” highlights the variety of issues and challenges and varied approaches being utilised to move communities to better environmental health outcomes. EHA is pleased to be connecting environmental health workers across Australia in this endeavour.

I look forward to networking with you during this conference and working together in the future to progress environmental health priorities. We are also pleased to continue our successful association with, and administration of, the 2019 National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Environmental Health Conference.

Conference artwork

The painting titled “Fishnets at Waterholes” appears courtesy of the artist, Yondee Shane Hansen. In this painting Yondee Shane Hansen has used repetitive motifs typical of many Aboriginal depictions of Country originating from the sand drawings that were part of ceremonial life. Like these drawings, this work is painted from an aerial perspective. The spirals represent the waterholes and the cross-hatching the fish nets. Life around waterways was a critical part of Nyoongar life, where people managed and developed the resources of the land and the water. The artist often paints aspects of traditional land and water use by his people.

The Honourable Kim Beazley AC is the 33rd Governor of Western Australia.

Prior to being installed as Governor on the 1st May 2018, Mr Beazley had dedicated almost three decades to a career in Federal Parliament, representing the WA seats of Brand and Swan.

In 2009, Mr Beazley was awarded the Companion of the Order of Australia for service to the Parliament of Australia through contributions to the development of government policies in relation to defence and international relations, and as an advocate for Indigenous people, and to the community.

Early life and family
Mr Beazley was born in Perth, Western Australia. He completed a Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts at the University of Western Australia. In 1973, he was awarded the Rhodes Scholarship for Western Australia and completed a Masters of Philosophy at Oxford University.

He has honorary doctorates from the University of Notre Dame (Western Australia) and Murdoch University.

Mr Beazley is married to Ms Susie Annus and has three daughters, Jessica, Hannah and Rachel.

Career
Mr Beazley was elected to the Federal Parliament in 1980 and represented the electorates of Swan (1980-96) and Brand (1996-2007).

Mr Beazley was a Minister in the Hawke and Keating Labor Governments (1983-1996) holding, at various times, the portfolios of Defence, Finance, Transport and Communications, Employment Education and Training, Aviation, and Special Minister of State.

From 1995 to 1996, Mr Beazley was Deputy Prime Minister and Leader of the Australian Labor Party and Leader of the Opposition from 1996 to 2001, and 2005 to 2006. Mr Beazley served on parliamentary committees, including the Joint Intelligence Committee and the Joint Foreign Affairs, Defence and Trade Committee.

University roles
After his retirement from politics in 2007, Mr Beazley was appointed Winthrop Professor in the Department of Politics and International Relations at The University of Western Australia.

In July 2008 he was appointed Chancellor of the Australian National University, a position he held until December 2009.

Ambassador to the United States of America
Mr Beazley took up an appointment as Ambassador to the United States of America in February 2010. He served as Ambassador until January 2016.

Academic roles
Upon returning to Australia from Washington in 2016, Mr Beazley was appointed as President of the Australian Institute for International Affairs (2016-17), Co-Chairman of the Australian American Leadership Dialogue (2016-18), Distinguished Fellow at the Australian Strategic Policy Institute, and a Director and Distinguished Fellow at the Perth USAsia Centre.
Keynote Speakers

Prof. Jonathan Carapetis
Director, Telethon Kids Institute
Keynote Address - Monday

Professor Carapetis is the Director of the Telethon Kids Institute in Perth, WA and has held that position since 2012.

He holds separate qualifications as a medical practitioner (MBBS), specialist paediatrician (FRACP Paediatrics), specialist infectious diseases physician (FRACP Infect Dis), and specialist public health physician (FAFPHM), as well as a PhD.

Professor Carapetis is also a fellow to the Australian Academy of Health & Medical Sciences and is recognised as a leading mind in the Australian health field, with particular expertise in Indigenous child health.

Professor Carapetis was previously the Director of the Menzies School of Health Research in Darwin and prior to that he was the Director of the Centre for International Child Health at the University of Melbourne and Theme Director at the Murdoch Children’s Research Institute in Melbourne.

Professor Carapetis has made an international contribution and commitment to the reduction of rheumatic heart disease. While rare in most developed countries, Australia has one of the highest rates of the disease in the world due to its prevalence within Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, particularly in Northern Australia.

He is an infectious diseases consultant physician at the Perth Children’s Hospital and is a Professor at the University of Western Australia.

Pat Turner AM
CEO, NACCHO
Keynote Address - Tuesday

The daughter of an Arrente man and a Gurdanji woman, Pat was raised in Alice Springs. As CEO of the National Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Organisation (NACCHO), she is at the forefront of community efforts to Close the Gap in health outcomes for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

Pat has over 40 years’ experience in senior leadership positions in government, business and academia including being the only Aboriginal person, only woman and longest serving CEO of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders Commission (ATSIC).

Amongst her many appointments, she also spent 18 months as Monash Chair of Australian Studies, Georgetown University, Washington DC, and was inaugural CEO of NITV. Pat holds a Masters Degree in Public Administration from the University of Canberra where she was awarded the University prize for Development Studies.

Hon. Roger Cook MLA
Deputy Premier; Minister for Health; Mental Health
Keynote Address - Thursday

Hon. Roger Cook MLA is the Deputy Premier of Western Australia. With oversight of two key portfolios in health and mental health, Roger has been a member of the Legislative Assembly since 2008, representing the seat of Kwinana.

Prior to entering politics Roger studied Arts and Public Administration at Murdoch University before completing a Postgraduate Diploma in Public Relations and a Master of Business Administration at Curtin University. He was active in campus politics and established the National Union of Students as its first National President.

After completing his studies Roger worked for a number of Federal and State Members of Parliament in policy and electorate officer roles.

Roger is passionate about Aboriginal issues and served as the Chief Executive Officer of a number of Aboriginal Land Councils as their Chief Executive Officer, along with a communications role assisting industry and government to reach agreement with Aboriginal Native Title groups. He was previously the National President of Australians for Native Title and Reconciliation.

Roger is a strong advocate for health and fitness, competing in regular triathlons, marathons and rides for muscular dystrophy along with the walk for diabetes. He supports the Western Force and Fremantle Dockers.

Roger Cook was born and raised in Western Australia. He lives with his wife Carly in Wellard, and has two adult children.

Activities

Maalinup Gallery and Cultural Centre
Maalinup is the Place of the Black Swan, which acknowledges the galleries location at Henly Brook in the picturesque Swan Valley, Perth, Western Australia. The afternoon will start with a welcome in Noongar language and introduction by your Aboriginal presenter followed by an informative talk covering:

- A brief local Aboriginal history, culture and food
- Walking across the land according to our Noongar six seasons, accessing and sharing different food resources
- And then on to the food itself and weather permitting a peek at the bushfood garden where you can also purchase plants. Then back to the gallery to browse our bushfood range, gifts, and artworks.

Murdoch University – Animal Hospital
Delegates will have the opportunity to get a behind the scenes tour of The Animal Hospital at Murdoch University and the facilities of the School Of Veterinary Medicine.

Murdoch’s School of Veterinary Medicine was the first in Australia to be built as a purpose-designed veterinary teaching and research facility, and this is reflected today in the wealth of integrated, on-site facilities providing animal, clinical and research exposure for undergraduates. Veterinary science was a foundation course of Murdoch University, with the first class graduating in 1979, and since then over two thousand veterinarians have been trained at the university.

Delegates will get the opportunity on this site visit to see these facilities up close. The tour includes

- a walk through the animal hospital;
- a visit to the anatomy museum where you can view specimens of zoonotic parasites;
- the new clinical skills laboratory; and
- the surgical teaching facility and a visit to the pathology necropsy suite.

Optus Stadium
This private tour an exciting excursion that allows your group to experience the inner sanctum of the Stadium. Delegates will have the opportunity to explore the state of the art facilities in The Locker Room and see the amazing views from Level 5. The guided tour will be led by knowledgeable and friendly tour leaders provided by the stadium management.

You’ll be treated to breathtaking views of the playing surface, the Swan River and Perth city from the Stadium’s highest vantage point, and also experience the inner sanctum. Along the way you will discover sports memorabilia detailing WA’s rich sporting history, and don’t forget your camera because there will be plenty of photo opportunities around the Stadium.

Please note: Delegates are advised that there is approximately 1.5kms of walking on this tour. Stairs also form part of the tour route, however, lifts are available. The tour duration is between 75-90 minutes.

Sims Metal Management
The Sims Metal Kwinana operation is the Jewel in the Sims crown. Our state of the art recycling centre was commissioned in 2016 and houses the State’s largest, most sophisticated and environmentally friendly metal shredder. Our tour will take you around the Kwinana site, where you will see the shredder in operation, large pieces of machinery in action and 1000’s of tonnes of scrap metal processed and ready for export.

SMM is the world’s largest metal recycling company. Globally our leadership position has been built through an uncompromising commitment to safety, customer service and the expertise and loyalty of our extraordinary people.
